Blake.—Alfred Blake, Eikpa Lodge, Sunday’s Well, Cork; son of the late Jeremiah Blake, of Cork; born February 23rd, 1849; educated at St. Stanislaus College, Tullabeg, and Queen’s College, Cork. Admitted a solicitor, 1870; Coroner for the city of Cork; Solicitor to the Cork Rural District Council and Poor Law Guardians. Recreation: golfing; was instrumental in bringing the present links at Little Island to a state of perfection and sound financial condition; in recognition of his services was presented with a very valuable silver cup, which, after the presentation, he gave to the Club as a challenge cup; was a well known tennis player, and was Secretary of the Cork Tennis Club for many years. Clubs: Cork, Munster, and Cork Harbour Rowing.

Bland.—Francis Christopher Cecil Bland, Mount Ruby, Mallow; son of James Franklin Bland, late of Derryquin Castle, co. Kerry; born June 14th, 1875; educated privately. Married, July 6th, 1904, May, daughter of the late Henry A. Uprichard, of Elmfield, Guildford, co. Down, and has issue two sons, James Franklin and Henry Archibald.

Bouchier-Hayes.—Henry Bouchier-Hayes, Charleville, co. Cork; third son of Dr. Thomas Hayes, of Rathkeale, co. Limerick; born at Shanagolden, co. Limerick, in 1866; educated at Blackrock, Dublin, and Rockwell College, Cashel; L.R.C.S.I. and L.M.; L.R.C.P.I. and L.M. Medical Officer to the Post Office. Married, in 1897, Mary, daughter of the late Michael Cahill, of Charleville, and has issue two sons and six daughters.

Boumphrey.—Alfred George Boumphrey, Rock Lodge, Monkstown, co. Cork; son of the late Joseph Boumphrey, of Liverpool; born September 1st, 1861; educated at Birkenhead College. For many years was resident in the United States; Secretary of Monkstown Golf Club, and one of the original members, the present success of this now well known club being in a great measure due to Mr. Boumphrey; ex-champion croquet player of the North of England, the North of Ireland, and Scotland; won the North of England Championship outright, value 60 guineas; joint third for the Reddow Cup in 1903; winner of the North of Ireland Championship twice, 1906 and 1907, of Scotland, 1906 and 1907, and has numerous other prizes; is Churchwarden of St. John’s Church, Monkstown, and during his term of office the church was re-decorated under his supervision at a cost of £500, which was subscribed for in two years. Recreations: gardening, golf, and croquet. Married, June 10th, 1885, Annie d’Esterre, daughter of the late John P. Taylor, of Kenwood, Chicago, and has issue one son, John, born in 1886, and two daughters, Gladys, and Eileen. Clubs: Cork, Royal Cork Yacht, Royal Munster Yacht, Cork Harbour Rowing, and Monkstown; and is on the various committees.

Bourke.—The Hon. the Recorder of Cork, Matthew J. Bourke, M.A., K.C., The Lodge, Banteer, co. Cork; second son of John Bourke, of Kanturk; educated at St. Coleman’s College, Fermoy; Queen’s College, Cork, and in Germany. Graduated B.A. in Logic, Metaphysics, and Political Economy, and M.A. in Modern Languages and Literature, taking Senior Scholarship in the same subjects. Law student at King’s Inn, Dublin, and Inner Temple, London; called to the Irish Bar, 1874; Q.C., 1892; Bencher of King’s Inn, 1897; Third Serjeant-at-Law, 1907; Recorder of Cork, 1908. Clubs: Stephen’s Green, Dublin, Cork Club, and County Club, Cork.
Bourne.—Attwell Richard Bourne, J.P., Landscape, Doneraile, co. Cork; second son of the late Richard Bourne, 12th Regiment, and of Leeson Street, Dublin; born in Dublin, in 1850, and directly descended from Robert Bourne, a Colonel in the Army of Charles II., who received for his services considerable grants of land in the Courtmacsherry and Timoleague districts of the co. Cork. Justice of the Peace for the county of Cork; at one time raced extensively, having won the Irish Derby in 1872, and many other important races; now breeds and shows high class hunters. Married, in 1902, Augusta Constance, widow of the late John Nicholas Nugent, R.N., second son of Sir John Nugent, Bart., Ballincollig Castle, co. Westmeath, and youngest daughter of the late Colonel John Henry Ellis Ridley, Queen's Bays (2nd Dragoons), and of St. Clare, Torquay.

Bowen-Colthurst.—Robert M. Bowen-Colthurst, at present living at Oak Grove, Killinardish, co. Cork; second son of R. W. T. Bowen-Colthurst, of Oak Grove, and Dripsey Castle, co. Cork; born September 15th, 1883; educated at Harrow, and Trinity College, Cambridge; B.A.Cantab. Vice-Chamberlain to Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; Justice of the Peace for county of Cork; Lieutenant 4th Batt. Leinster Regiment; Assistant Private Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, 1905-07. Recreations: hunting, shooting, golf, etc. Married, December 7th, 1907, Winifred, daughter of the Rev. C. F. C. West, Charlbury Vicarage, Oxfordshire. Clubs: County, Cork.

Bowen-Colthurst.—Captain John Colthurst Bowen-Colthurst, Oakgrove, Killinardish, co. Cork; son of the late Robert Walter Travers Bowen-Colthurst; born August 12th, 1880; educated at Haileybury, and Sandhurst. Gazetted to 2nd Royal Irish Rifles, August 12th, 1899; served in South African war, 1900-1902 (Queen's Medal and four clasps); Lieutenant, August 20th, 1900; served with Tibet Expedition, 1904 (Medal and clasp); Captain, December 21st, 1907. Is a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. Married, April 2nd, 1910, The Hon. Rosalinda Laetitia, youngest daughter of Lord Dunboyne (25th Baron), of Knoppgue Castle, co. Clare.
Cork and co. Cork

Brasier-Creagh.—John Washington Brasier-Creagh, J.P., Creagh Castle, Doneraile, co. Cork; eldest son of the late William Brasier-Creagh, and Isabella Anne Caroline, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Hungerford, R.N.; born at Firmount Ho, Donoughmore, co. Cork, December 24th, 1864; educated at Cheltenham College. Captain 9th Battalion King’s Royal Rifle Corps, retired; Justice of the Peace for co. Cork; served in South Africa with the Irish Yeomanry; Medal and three clasps.

Bray.—James Bray, Rosanna, Carrigrohane; son of the late James Bray, of Moor Park, Harrogate; born at Bradford, November 29th, 1837; educated privately in England and France. Formerly flax spinner in Leeds and Belgium, where he resided for twenty-five years; was Managing Director of the Cork Spinning and Weaving Company, and still on the Board of Directors; President of the St. George’s Society, Cork. Married, July 18th, 1894, to Louisa, fifth daughter of Charles Man Waters, of Harbledown, Canterbury.
Broderick.—William Broderick, J.P., Youghal; son of the late William Broderick, of Youghal; born July 23rd, 1846; educated privately. Justice of the Peace for co. Cork; member of Youghal Rural District Council, and of the Urban District Council; member of the Lunatic Asylums Board of Managers and the Sanatorium Committee; late Chairman of the Rural District Council and member of Cork County Council, holding both positions for ten years. Farms his own land at Barnagie and town lands at Youghal. Married, in 1884, Mary, daughter of Simon Atkins, of Youghal, and has issue five sons and four daughters; the eldest son is Dr. S. Broderick, M.B., Member of the College of Surgeons and Physicians, Dublin; the second, William, is in business, the third, the Rev. John, of Brooklyn, New York; and the eldest daughter is a Dominican nun, at Sion Hill, Blackrock, Dublin.

Browne.—James Browne, 22, St. Patrick’s Hill, Cork; son of the late James Browne, Ardfallen, Sunday’s Well, Cork; born May 1st, 1869; educated at St. Vincent’s College, Castleknock, Dublin; Ratcliffe College, Leicestershire; M.B., B.Ch. Royal University, Ireland.

Browne.—Thomas J. Browne, Roseneath, Midleton Park, Queenstown; son of W. Browne, of Killymaddy House, Castle Coughfield, co. Tyrone; born August 4th, 1851; educated at Dungannon Royal School, and Trinity College, Dublin; B.A., 1871; M.B., Dublin, 1871; Licentiate Royal College of Surgeons, and Licentiate in Midwifery, 1873; Medical Inspector, Local Government Board for Ireland. Married, firstly, daughter of W. Sinclair, of One Point, co. Down, and had issue five children: Ida, Ethel Sarah, Lilian Anna, married Lieutenant William Crawford Harrison, R.N.; Lieutenant William, East Yorkshire Regiment, who served through the Boer war, receiving Medals and clasp; and Lieutenant Thomas Walker, Royal Army Medical Corps; secondly, October 4th, 1899, Janie, daughter of G. Lindsey, of Sefton Park, Liverpool, and has one son, Reginald Lyndsay, born September 12th, 1900.