Spottiswoode—Colonel Robert Collinson D'Esterre Spottiswoode, Glenburn, Glanmire, co. Cork; son of the late Major-General A. C. Spottiswoode, of the Bengal Army; born December 24th, 1841; educated at Edinburgh Academy, and Murchiston Castle, Edinburgh. Entered the service of the Old East India Company, March 20th, 1858; Cornet in the Bengal Light Cavalry; joined the 3rd European Light Cavalry; on its amalgamation joined the 21st Light Dragoons, afterwards the 21st Hussars, and exchanged into the 10th Hussars in 1874; served in Afghanistan with the 10th Hussars, receiving Medal; served as Special Service Officer in Suakim, 1885; Medal, clasp, and mentioned in Dispatches; Brevet of Lieutenant-Colonel; served in Russia, December, 1835, until April, 1887, and qualified as Russian interpreter; appointed to the District Staff in Cork, September, 1887, and retired from the Service, September, 1890. Married, November 7th, 1885, Ann Elizabeth Burrell, only daughter of Patrick Turnbull, W.S., Edinburgh. Clubs: Junior United Service, London; United Empire, London; New, Edinburgh; and County, Cork.

Stawell.—Sampson Stawell, Crobeg, Doneraile; son of the late George Stawell; born at Crobeg, in 1848; educated at Dublin. Landowner; the family of Stawell is of very ancient lineage, tracing descent from the time of the Norman Conquest; for 600 years the Stawells were connected with the west of England; the Venerable Jonas Stawell was Vicar of Kinsale and Archdeacon of Ross, and in his will, proved in 1671, he is referred to as "some time of Chudleigh, in the county of Devon"; Sampson Stawell is a direct descendant of the Archdeacon, and on his maternal side is a great-great-grandson of the Right Hon. Anthony Foster, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer of Ireland, whose eldest brother John was the last Speaker of the Irish House of Commons; the family has now been resident at Crobeg for 110 years. Married, in 1896, Mary, daughter of the late Spier Northcote, of Cottage, Doneraile.

Stuart Chudleigh.—Henry de Castres Stuart Chudleigh, Reenadhuna, Church Cross, Skibbereen; second son of the late Ven. Alexander Stuart, Archdeacon of Ross, and Anna Matilda, daughter of the late Henry de Castres Kellett, of Morrison’s Quay, Cork, barrister; born at Aughadown Rectory, December 22nd, 1840; educated at the Royal School, Dungannon. Assumed the additional name of Chudleigh by Royal licence, May 8th, 1895, under the will of the late Sir William Kellett, Bart., and in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of Thomas Stawell Richmond Chudleigh, of the town and county of Southampton, deceased. Recreation: marine motoring.
Stuart.—PASCOE WILLIAM GRENFELL STUART, Marino, Queenstown, co. Cork; son of General William James Stuart, R.E., of Drumaspli, co. Tyrone, and Eleanor Dorcas, fifth daughter of the late Thomas George French, of Marino, Queenstown; born October 5th, 1868; educated at Sherborne School, Dorset. Was Private Secretary for two years to the Right Hon. Sir Walter Hely Hutchinson, G.C.M.G., P.C., Governor of Windward Islands, now Governor of Natal, and for seven years Private Secretary to the Right Hon. Lord Lamington, K.C.M.G., G.C.S.I., Governor of Queensland; retired in 1901; late Lieutenant 9th Batt. King's Royal Rifle Corps (North Cork Rifles). Recreations: hunting, cricket, and golf; member of the United Hunt Club. Married, June 14th, 1894, Elizabeth, daughter of J. K. Soames, of Westcombe Park, Blackheath, Kent, and has issue, Robert Fitzroy Hamilton Pascoe, born December 2nd, 1904, and Margaret Granville Wandoline, born at Brisbane, April 5th, 1896. Clubs: Motor, Lords, and Cork County.

Sullivan—William Cox Langford Sullivan, J.P., River View, Innishannon, co. Cork, and 18, South Mall, Cork; son of the late T. K. Sullivan, solicitor, of Bandon; born at Bandon, October 20th, 1868; educated at Bandon Grammar School. Land Agent to Lord Barrymore’s West Cork estates, and several estates in the counties of Cork and Tipperary; District Receiver; Justice of the Peace for the county of Cork; Provincial Grand Secretary for the Masonic Order in Munster. Married, November 14th, 1900, May, youngest daughter of Eyre Maunsell-Eyre, of Innishannon, co. Cork, and has surviving issue two daughters; Eyre Langford died May 13th, 1908. Club: County, Cork.

Sutton.—Braham Edward Sutton, Pinehurst, Blackrock; son of the late Robert A. Sutton, of Rose Lodge, Blackrock; born July, 1872; educated at Downside, Bath. Director of Suttons’, Ltd.; on the Board of Governors of the Mercy Hospital; member of Council of the Cork Incorporated Chamber of Commerce and Shipping. Married, January 21st, 1903, Maud, daughter of the late Colonel Healy, A.P.D., of Feale View, Listowel, co. Kerry, and has issue five sons. Clubs: Cork, and Royal Cork Yacht, Queenstown.

Swales.—Seymour William Nicholas Swales, Swaledale, Ballincollig, co. Cork; son of the late Dr. Peter Swales, of Sheerness, Medical Officer of Health for the Isle of Sheppey, Queenborough, and Port of London; born at Sheerness, June 21st, 1870; educated at King’s School, Canterbury, and after a course of study abroad at the Royal College of Surgeons, and University Extra-Mural Schools, and the Dental Hospital, Edinburgh; L.D.S.R.C.S.Edin., 1895; Ezard prize for Gold Filling; Watson Medal for Dental Surgery and Pathology; Medal for Hospital Practice; 1st Class Honours in Anatomy, Practical Anatomy and Dissecting, and Practical Chemistry; member of the British Dental Association and the Odonto-Chirurgical Society of Scotland. Has practised in Lisieux, Normandy; in Geneva; in Nice; in Aix-les-Bains; in London, and the provinces of England; and finally settled at Cork in 1901. Recreations:
Cork and co. Cork

shooting, golf, and salmon fishing; is lessee of the Ardrum fishing, and famous Weir stream on the river Lee. Is descended from the Swales, of Swaledale, Yorkshire, who trace their name to Sir Alured de Swale, whose grandfather, Gilbert de Gaunt, nephew of Matilda, Queen of William the Conqueror, claimed descent from Alfred the Great and Charlemagne. An ancestor, Solomon Swale, was High Sheriff of York, and created a Baronet by Charles II. His mother, née Margaret Jane Margetson, is directly descended from James Margetson, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland in 1663, whose only son, James, was the father of Sarah Lady Colvill, of Newtown, married, secondly, to Brabazon Baron Ponsonby, and Earl of Bessborough. Her grand-daughter, Alicia, was the first Lady Kilworth and Mountcashel. The Primate’s only daughter married William, 2nd Viscount Charlemont.

Swanton. — Richard Swanton, J.P., Queenstown; son of the late Richard Swanton, of Queenstown; born at Queenstown, April 21st, 1851; educated at Queenstown National School. Justice of the Peace for co. Cork, 1893; was for six years on the Urban District Council, Queenstown; Hon. Treasurer of Queenstown Hospital; Vice-President of the local branch of the Irish Industrial Association; Director of Queenstown Baths Company, Ltd. Married, April, 1893, Helene, daughter of Silvain Genin, of Paris, and has issue two sons and two daughters.

Swanton. — Richard W. Swanton, Townshend Street, Skibbereen; eldest son of the late William Swanton, of Skibbereen; born at Shepperton, near Skibbereen. Was teacher of the Skibbereen school where he had been educated; and on retiring was granted a life pension; is Insurance Agent, Rent and Gas Collector; Clerk to the Parish Church; a striking figure in the life of Skibbereen; member of the Young Men’s Christian Association; a Freemason, Lodge No. 15, and twice W.M.; Mark Mason. Married, firstly, Sarah, only daughter of Colour-Sergeant Egby, of Skibbereen, and has issue, Richard Henry, now in Wales, and Rosanna May, married to Robert John Downs, formerly of Coleraine, now of Skibbereen; secondly, Ellen Rhoda Roulston, of Londonderry, and has issue Eva Eleanor, married to W. Dungan, of Ballydehob; Ida Alexandra (died in 1899); Una Winifred, married to Michael McCarthy, of Skibbereen; and Amy Cecil.
Sweetnam.—Hérbert Molesworth Sweetnam, Westropp House, Innishannon, co. Cork; seventh son of Stephen Sweetnam, M.R.C.S.Eng., of Schull, co. Cork; educated at Faughman's School, Rosscarbery, and at Trinity College, Dublin, where he took the degree of B.A., and half the M.B. degree; he subsequently studied at the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh, and took the diplomas of L.R.C.S. and P.Edin., and L.F.M.Glasgow. After practising in Skibbereen for some years, he settled at Innishannon in 1903, where he has since been engaged in general practice; Medical Officer of the Innishannon Dispensary District; and Medical Officer to the Post Office, and referee to various Insurance Companies. Married, firstly, in December, 1886, Rosa Sydney (who died 1895), daughter of Alexander John Montgomery, of Dublin; secondly, in April, 1898, Frances Penella, second daughter of Percival Symes Swan, of Baldwin'stown, co. Wexford, late agent of the Bank of Ireland, Tipperary, and has issue by the second marriage, one son and one daughter.

Thomas.—Robert Webb Thomas, J.P., Castletownroche; son of Thomas Dawson Thomas, J.P., of Castletownroche; born February 20th, 1885; educated at St. Faughman's College, Rosscarbery, Cork Grammar School, and South-Eastern Agricultural College, Wye, Kent. Proprietor of Bridge Roller Mills, Castletownroche; farms his own land and is a breeder of hunters; Justice of the Peace for co. Cork; Hon. Secretary of Funcheon Vale Harriers.

Tichborne.—Rev. Edward Adam Tichborne, M.A., 7, Alexandra Place, Cork; son of the late Adam Tichborne, of Dublin; born in co. Tyrone, May 5th, 1871; educated privately, and at the Royal School, Cavan, and Trinity College, Dublin; B.A., 1892, Divinity Testimorium 1893; M.A., 1899, First Honor and Prizeman in Modern History and Political Science. Ordained Deacon, 1894, and Priest, 1895, by the Bishop of Killaloo; Rector of St. Paul's, Cork, from 1907; formerly English Chaplain in Buenos Ayres from 1900 to 1905; Curate of Ballinasloe, co. Galway, 1894 to 1897; Rector of Ballyeglish, 1897 to 1900. Married, November 11th, 1896, Georgiana Margaret, daughter of George Palmer, Barrister-at-Law, of Guelph, Ontario, and widow of Thomas Lancaster, of Lancaster, Ballinasloe, and has issue one daughter, Theodora Olivia, born September 7th, 1897.